

OTHER RESOURCES:

There are a wealth of resources and organisations available to help plan campaign strategy, find out best practice and to connect with other campaigners. We bear no responsibility for the content of external resources, but these are some which we have found helpful.

350.org - Training materials on campaign strategy and facilitation with climate change focus but adaptable.

Campaign Bootcamp - 'How to' resources, training opportunities, jobs (e-newsletter sign up at bottom of homepage).

E-Campaigners Forum - Email list for campaigners (especially digital focus) to ask questions and follow discussions, annual conference in Oxford in April.

Mob Lab - Loads of campaign planning tools and case studies. Newsletter sign up.

NCVO - Membership body for voluntary organisation. Training, resources, advice, everything that voluntary organisations need.

New Economy Organisers Network (Neon) - Connecting campaigns and movements, toolkit, media spokesperson and other training.

Newspeak House - Hosts a whole range of campaigning events and hacks, focus on getting and sharing political data.

Sheila McKechnie Foundation - Training, events, national campaigner awards, blog.

SOGI Campaigns - International LGBT+ campaigns resources, case studies, how to guides and Facebook group.
