

24%

of event attendees had attended an LBT+ Women's Health Week event previously

while 76% were new to the week

“ Really good to have an inclusive event with wording not solely relating to cis women. ” of attendees attended their chosen event because it was LGBT-specific

97%

of attendees would recommend the event they attended to a colleague or friend of attendees said that the event they attended felt like a safe space

95% of attendees were “extremely satisfied” or “satisfied” by the quality of the event they attended

“ Important discussions and coming together for LBT+ women. The event was facilitated/ hosted skilfully and the panel were really knowledgeable and informative. ”

“ It was very well organised and hosted, and there was an interesting and diverse group of very knowledgeable panellists. ”

“ Informative discussion points — some of the things aren't generally discussed in everyday, really nice to hear about areas from an LGBTQIA+ perspective for a change. ” of attendees felt that they learned something new by attending their chosen event

97%

91%

of attendees came away from the event they attended feeling more confident with the issues covered

“ Very insightful and I learned a lot in a short time. ”

83% of attendees found the event they attended “very easy” or “easy” to access

“ Fun, friendly & lively event. ”