

241

sign-ups across our 9 events

of attendees were "extremely satisfied" or "satisfied" by the quality of the event they attended

"An excellent host who was incredibly articulate and well informed, who had a real presence and communicated extremely well."

100%

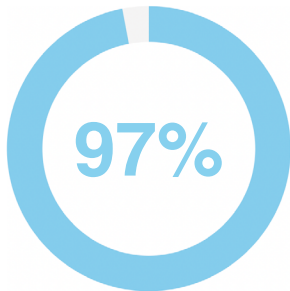

of attendees would recommend the event they attended to a colleague or friend of LBT women who attended an event left feeling like they belonged more in the LBT community. The rest reported no change.

62.1%

community. The rest reported no change.

of attendees found the event they attended "very easy" or "easy" to access

"A dedicated space for LBT women to air their challenges/issues and feel seen, valued and safe."

100%

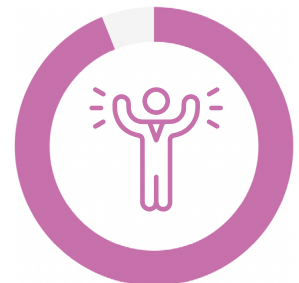

of attendees felt that they had increased their knowledge by attending their chosen event

"Lots of people would benefit from the info given here and the hosts were brilliant, really warm and knowledgeable. It was quite inspiring."

"Inclusive, friendly, very informative."

100%

of attendees said that the event they attended felt like a safe space

93.9%

of attendees came away from the event they attended feeling more confident with the issues covered

65.2%

of attendees aged 45+, attendees of colour and non-binary/genderfluid attendees felt more supported after the event. The rest reported no change.

"It felt a very safe, inclusive, flattened hierarchical space."